Members in attendance: Kody Barto, Carmen Viana, Michealle Brown, Patricia Hastings, Tara Burgess, Christina Andres, Katherine Allen, Diane Jackson, and Christine Newsome.

2.0 Public Comment Period

No public comments at this time

3.0 New Items

- 3.1 Approval of the September, 2022 minutes.
- 3.2 Christina Andres was elected as SOT President, 2022-2023
- 3.3 Katherine Allen was elected as SOT Vice President, 2022-2023
- 3.4 Carmen Viana was elected as Secretary, 2022-2023
- 3.5 A position that should open is possibly first grade
- 3.6 Another position that should open is for another SPTA
- 3.7 4 CTTs (essentially student tutors) are slotted for the current school year; the issue is pulling them from a very slim pool of substitute teachers that are needed more at this time in the school year.

4.0 General Discussion

- 4.1 With the current budget, an extra security door at the front of the inside of the school is a priority for the use of the funds.

- 4.2 The flagpole at the front of the school will also be fixed using the current budget funds.
- 4.3 The School Performance Plan 2022–2023 was reviewed by the SOT Team. Academic, student, and teacher goals were presented and reviewed. Academic goals are focused on writing and building stronger conventions. Teacher goals include using common academic vocabulary and vertical alignment strategies to build stronger transitions between successive grade levels. Student goals include building more support with students and their need for stronger communications with adults, and building rigor and stamina/perseverance within problem solving activities in and out of the classroom.
- 4.4 Ideas for future fundraisers between the school and the PTO were discussed. How student generated funds are used to purchase things within the school were also discussed.
